

Dear Parents

Term 3 is due to start next week. Teaching children at home can be stressful. We don't want the children to miss out on their learning, yet trying to keep them focused and engaged can be difficult. Many of us at Monster Phonics are parents as well. We realise how difficult it can be to teach children at home during these strange times.

Therefore, to help you we have worked hard to create a special free Home Learning section which focuses on all Term 3 phonics activities that children should have been learning from next week.

To access this section go to

We have also decided to continue to offer all of our material for free until schools re-open. Please feel free to share the login provided.

Monster Phonics follows the national curriculum and is recognised by the government as a key resource to be used by schools. It is both fun and engaging, perfect for helping parents at this time.

We hope this helps and let's hope we can get the little ones back to school as soon as possible! It is always great to hear how children love Monster Phonics, we'd be grateful if you could add a review to Trust Pilot.

Best wishes
