

Let's rejoice to Aux Champs-Élysées and enjoy seeing again the places in Paris we visited last week. Please play it, sing and dance along to it!

If we go to another town, let's learn how to ask directions in an "office du tourisme" this week! At least virtually...

We would like you to carry on the French learning with the bilingual course called High-Five.

If you haven't done so yet, please ask your parents to create an account through the above link, the enrolment is free. Remember to always have parental supervision when you are on the internet.

Activity 1

Watch Video Lesson 16- À l'Office du Tourisme on High Five. Reading the Notes for Teachers 16 can help you with deeper understanding and learning before you do the Activity Sheet 16a. Please print it in black and white.

Activity 2:

You can listen to the Radio Show 16 and do the Activity Sheet 16b. Please print it in black and white. I wonder which is your favourite place to visit in a town?

Activity 3:

Today's challenge is to read the Lesson Transcript 16. You can read it aloud or ask a member of your family to be Emma and you can read Mathilde's words to teach Emma.

Extension: Could you rewrite bits of the lesson transcript, making sure you use the sentence correctly: "où est ... le/la +m noun " and taking care to use the determiner "le" in front of masculine nouns and "la" in front of feminine nouns. You can send a voice or video recording of you reading loud the above script or your rewritten script.

Remember like last week, to include lots of adjectives of size (before the noun) and colour (after the noun) making sure you also agree them with the noun they describe (un petit monument blanc/une petite tour blanche).

You can always enjoy all the songs and stories we have done in Yr5 Rhodes Avenue Pinterest Board.

Here is a special cultural event of my favourite book ever I would like to share with you:

Stories by Michael Morpurgo and Guests

From 29 June to 3 July 2020, the Institut français du Royaume-Uni and the Antoine de Saint-Exupéry Foundation for Youth, in collaboration with Montblanc, will host on their social media a series of five exclusive readings of The Little Prince, by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, one of the best-selling and most translated books ever published, in a new translation by acclaimed author and playwright Michael Morpurgo.

Along with Michael Morpurgo, actor Kristin Scott Thomas, poet and novelist Ben Okri, actor and poet Jade Anouka, actor Ruth Wilson, actor Tom Burke and great nephew of Saint-Exupéry, Olivier d'Agay will bring to life the Little Prince as he embarks on a journey to explore the universe in a true quest to unveil the meaning of life and human nature.

To complete this exceptional line-up of talent, His Grace, The Duke of Wellington will launch the first episode and series on 29 June 2020. The series will be moderated by award-winning TV and radio broadcaster, and host of Penguin's podcast, Nihal Arthanayake.

In addition to the Original illustrations by Saint-Exupéry will be presented, as well as live drawings by innovative calligrapher Alice Mazzilli inspired by the readings.

This exceptional event marks the 75th anniversary of the end of WWII, and the 120th anniversary of the birth of Antoine de Saint-Exupéry.

PROGRAMME

I hope you will enjoy this week's activities and discovering "le petit Prince".

The film version of the film available on Netflix is also wonderful: Le petit Prince trailer

Remember : Nadine Chadier adore les messages 😊 !

Bonne fin de semaine !

Salut, au revoir et à bientôt, Nadine

The French team welcomes any messages and feedback at all times and would love to receive any work and recordings done by our pupils directly to french@rhodes.haringey.sch.uk.

Messages will be replied to by the end of the same week.
