

Chers élèves des années six !

lundi 6 juillet 2020

I wonder if I enticed you last week to pick up the book of “Le Petit Prince”, watch the film, sing the song again or see the wonderful readings on line The Little Prince stories by Michael Morpurgo and guests

« L’essentiel est invisible pour les yeux, on ne voit bien qu’avec le cœur »

Digital Language Resources for Primary & Secondary Schools

Main language learning platform: Languagenut

I am going to be sending out Languagenut certificates to all of those who have participated!

IF YOU KNOW THAT YOU ARE GOING TO BE LEARNING ANOTHER LANGUAGE THAN FRENCH NEXT YEAR, YOU CAN EXPLORE IT ON LANGUAGENUT TOO! I CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOUR PROGRESS IN WHATEVER LANGUAGE YOU WISH.

Please don't hesitate to write to me to get your logins and I will make sure that all Yr6 pods leads have the lists too.

I have had the pleasure to introduce you to the French language and culture in KS2 and it has been a great honour to accompany you on this language learning adventure. I am very proud of the progress you have made, not just in French, but by acquiring transferable language learning skills.

Always remember: « tu es très adorable, très capable, très poli(e) et fantastique !!!! »

Here is the leavers song I haven't been able to teach you this year: Bilingual Leavers Song

Once a pupil of Madame Chadier, sorry, Nadine, always a pupil in her heart:

« L’essentiel est invisible pour les yeux, on ne voit bien qu’avec le cœur »

If you miss the songs and stories we have done together, you can at all times see them on the Rhodes Avenue Pinterest site.

If you wish to say goodbye to me, please email french@rhodes.haringey.sch.uk. You know how much I love receiving “un message” and I would love you to give me two stars and a wish: two things (at least!) you enjoyed learning in French and a suggestion of something I could do more or less of during my lessons.

I still miss teaching you sooooo much!

Bonne semaine, Nadine
