Dear Parents/Carers,

Please find below the links for the Zoom sessions with Haringey Educational Psychology Services tomorrow. This will be an opportunity to reflect, ask questions, seek advice and hear more about children's understanding of bereavement. The sessions will not be recorded in order to create a sense of safe space for anyone joining, but the team have kindly offered to record a video for us to share with the parent community to address any thoughts and questions that arise from the sessions.
